SECOND AMENDMENT PRIOR TO FIRST OFFICE ACTION

Dear Sir:

Pro Se applicant respectfully submits the following amendments prior to the first office action contained hereinbelow.

Substitute specification on pgs 1-41 , substitute claims 1-31 on pgs 42-62, and a substitute abstract on pg 63 (totaling 63 pages), replacing the original specification, claims and abstract filed on November 20, 2003, also replacing all aspects of the preliminary amendment prior to first office action filed March 10, 2004. Pro Se Applicant has submitted this second amendment because the preliminary amendment was filed in error. Pro Se applicant has also filed this amendment in order to align proper wording between the specification, the claims, and the abstract, and to submit revised, re organized, and additional claims, as well as repairing ambiguous references within the claims causing insufficient antecedent basis. By filing this second amendment, Pro Se applicant has also attempted to eliminate any confusion for the examiner. This amendment serves as declaration that there is no subject matter in this specification, claims, and abstract, other than the subject matter found in the original filing of this CIP on November 20, 2003, and the subject matter found in the parent CIP # 10/310,339 filed December 5, 2002, therefore this amendment does not contain any new subject matter.

Pro Se applicant sincerely apologizes for any incontinence this may have caused the examiner.

Very Truly Yours,
